MAN WHO MAKES CHINESE MONEY GOES TO ORIENT

G. S. Hall, Manager of American Bank Note Company in Far East, Due Here Today

Among the prominent persons on board the Nippon Maru, which is due to arrive from the coast this afternoon, is believed to be George S. Hall, manager of Far Eastern affairs for the American Bank Note Company. Mr. Hall is on his way to Peking, where his concern has a contract with the Chinese government for the manufacture of the republic's paper currency. Hall says the withdrawal of the Pacific Mail fleet is a hard blow to his concern, which is thereby forced completely to change its shipping system. "I cannot see any saving feature in the Seamen's Act," Hall said in San Francisco before leaving. "It is supposed to protect American sailors, of whom there are not enough to man five steamers."

The American Banknote Company has been manufacturing notes for China for 10 years. Its contract has still many years to run. The company also makes paper currency for Canada and other countries.
